

August 2019

Have that with Me

Author Unknown

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/kgbsides\_uk

Part of the Folklore Commons, and the Music Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Unknown, Author, "Have that with Me" (2019). Broadside Ballads: England. 1290.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/kgbsides\_uk/1290

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Kenneth S. Goldstein Collection: Broadside Ballads at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Broadside Ballads: England by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Have that with Me

Sung by Owen Way.

---

Last night, while out walking, I thought I would call
At a nice little pub that I know;
I lit a cigar, and I felt very fit,
And the bar was all bright and aglow.
I called for a drink and was going to pay,
But something else happened instead,
For a slap on the back brought me round to a pal.
And these are the words that he said—

Have that with me, have that with me,
Jolly good brand, I've tried it, you see,
When next we meet—soon may it be,
We'll have another, so have that with me.

Old Benjamin Brown was a farmer I know,
And an old English gentleman he,
With one love's daughter—a dream of a girl,
And as pretty as pretty could be.
Young Bertie Fitz-Jones went to court her one day,
He was dressed in his best Sunday suit,
But old Buff'r Brown fumed, and he raved, and he swore,
And he said as he lifted his boot—

Have that with me, have that with me,
Jolly good shot, right straight from the knee—
When next we meet, long may it be,
We'll have another, so have it with me.

went to a rare swagger ball t'other night.
For a dance with some old friends of mine,
The ladies assembled looked lovely indeed,
And their dresses were really divine.
One Johnnie I noticed was right on the mash,
And he didn't appear at all shy,
The band played a waltz, and he said to a girl,
As his window he stuck in his eye—

Have that with me, have that with me,
Jolly fine dance, a regular spree,
Wine! cigar! trel! hawl! on the Q.T.!
And there's only one chair left, so have that with me.

I strolled in a police court a day or two back,
To watch the proceedings proceed,
The beak had before him a smart looking youth,
Who seemed to enjoy it indeed.
He said to the magistrate "Hullo, old buck!
Why, you ain't got no hair on your head,
Ere, I'll sell you some 'Tat:ho,' but the magistrate said,
'No, I'll sell you a police cell instead.'

Have that with me, have that with me,
Jolly good sport you'll find it to be,
What say? one month? oh, no sir, three,
We don't like to lose you, so have that with me.